Go from Plain Jane to Sexy Slightly-Undone Sadie with help of the Drybar this Valentine's Day.

Save your everyday style for every other day than Valentine's. Drybar and their clever blowdry-bar concept – no cuts, no color, just blowouts – make Valentine hair ridiculously easy.

Just book your appointment, sit back and let them work their blowdry magic. Drybar owner Alli Webb told us, "For romance, think soft, tousled hair. Go for a slightly undone up-do with wisps of hair around the neck." She's right, the messy bun so whispers chic, without ever trying too hard.

She also recommends for a hot date, Drybar's signature Cosmo look: lots of loose curls. She says you can add a simple ribbon headband behind the bangs for a subtle, soft accent too.

Finally, for a sweet look (guys do love that girl-next-door thing), she's all about swept curls to one side of the face with a red clip or flower.

Those are just a few Drybar ways to get great Valentine's hair. And if you haven't hit a Drybar yet, they're popping up all over —now in Brentwood, West Hollywood, Studio City, Pacific Palisades and Newport Beach. They also have San Diego and San Francisco locations, as well as in other states from New York to Texas.

Drybar styles range from Straight Up and Manhattan to Cosmopolitan and Mai Tai, for only $35. Celebs love their blowouts too, with Sarah Michelle Geller, Emma Roberts, Nicky Hilton and the very hair-blessed Molly Sims dropping by the L.A. Drybar. For Valentine's, ask about their special 'Bouquet of Blowout' offers.
