On-trend toddlers

We found some fun designers who are creating great looks for little kids.

This month, we take a look at top toddler fashions – everything from party dresses and timeless designs to the latest lids and mix-match shoes. Your tot will be totally on-trend and stylin'. OCF

1. Little Stylings

Designer consignment is always tot-chic at Little Stylings, where you'll find new Neige styles like this multi-tiered polka-dot Natalia party dress. It's ideal for the summer or paired with a cardigan for cooler days. Little Stylings, with 30 percent off all new Neige, is at The Cove: 410 W. Coast Hwy., Newport Beach.

2. CHOOZE your own style

No, you're not seeing things. Each pair of CHOOZE shoes is mix-match – which is so cute. The CHOOZE children's line also gives to those in need by helping women living in poverty. Shoes are priced from $45. chooseshoes.com

3. PAIGELAUREN baby

Did you know that PAIGELAUREN baby has moved into toddler designs? You'll find the same timeless, simple styles in high-quality, comfortable products that pop with polka dots and mini stripes, among other stylish patterns. Sunset and Dawn are just a few of the new earth- and sky-inspired collection colors. paigelaurenbaby.com

4. Francie Pants

These fun, lightweight poly-blend shorts are super for dance, gymnastics, volleyball, cheerleading and school. franciepants.com

5. Handcrafted at The House of Lux

The detail on this eco-luxe look is toddler-to-die-for! This olive-green cord blazer with rich gold silk-brocade lining and leather elbow patches is made to order and perfect for fancy or informal occasions. House of Lux Designer Angela Day Vickers, a Burbank mother of three, makes conscience efforts to purchase nearly 90 percent of her fabrics from remnants and scrap. $89 at thehouseoflux.com and Saige Nicole at the OC Mart Mix; saigenicoles.com

6. Tea for tots

The colorful collection by Tea, founded in San Francisco, is inspired by travels around the world. Featuring fun, bold graphics and artsy details, these affordable clothes get attention. teacollection.com

7. Hats off to hot lids

The San Diego Hat Co. has many awesome styles for kids, from Sinatra-esque felt fedoras to lightweight suede cord caps to everyday denim products. It's adorable when kids sport classic adult styles, and these items provide an instant way to dress up any outfit. sandiegohat.com
